General Rules & Regulations

GENERAL RULES:

Rules subject to change without notice

A FEW RULES WILL APPLY IN ALL CASES AND ENTRIES FOR ANY DEPARTMENT.

Entries should be made as described in each department. All entries should be made directly to the manager of the proper department.

Exhibits must not be removed until date/time set by each department. Violations of this rule will result in forfeiture of any premiums won.

No exhibitor shall interfere with the work of the judges and in every instance the decision of the judges shall be final.

All exhibits in the hall, having been judged, will be open to the public on Thursday, August 10th.

One person to enter ONE and only ONE exhibit of a kind under a class and item number.

No premiums will be paid other than those listed. No exhibitor will be awarded more than one premium of any kind in any class. This will be enforced.

Any articles previously exhibited are not eligible for premiums or awards in any department.

Where there is no competition, articles will be awarded first or second or no premium, according to their merits.

Any person entering borrowed articles, vegetables or other products and/or making fraudulent representations in reference to an exhibit will forfeit the right to all premiums and passes.

Should any exhibit be of inferior quality or form and in the opinion of the judges unworthy of the premium offered, only such premium will be paid, if any, that meet with the approval of the Fair management.

All agricultural and horticultural products exhibited must have been grown by the exhibitor. Other exhibits must be the exclusive property of the exhibitor. This rule also applies to Grangers and all other groups entering exhibits.

The Skowhegan State Fair Association reserves the right to accept or reject any exhibit and no premium will be paid unless all requirements are fulfilled.

Fifteen entries are required in each exhibition hall to qualify for a season pass. There cannot be a combination between halls.

Complaints by exhibitors of any nature must be submitted in writing to the manager of the department involved not later than twelve o'clock Monday August 14th.

Competent security will be on the grounds 24 hours per day during the fair dates. The Skowhegan State Fair will not be responsible for any loss or damage.

Every possible care will be taken to prevent loss or damage to exhibits in Exhibition Halls, but in no case will the Skowhegan State Fair assume responsibility for any loss or damage that might occur.

Due to insurance Regulations, there will be no vehicle traffic or parking allowed in the agricultural area or mid-way area from 11:00 am to 11:00 pm from August 10th - 19th. All violators will be towed at owners expense. This rule will be strictly enforced. There will be a special parking area for agricultural exhibitors.
